Program will grant funds to local individuals and non-profits to support the arts, humanities and sciences.

Marblehead, MA September 1, 2024 — The Marblehead Cultural Council (MCC), one of 351 local organizations that are funded directly from the Massachusetts Cultural Council, is now accepting applications for the 2025 calendar year.

Each year, the Marblehead Cultural Council grants thousands of dollars to individuals and non-profits that support community cultural, artistic, scientific and historical activities.

In the past, the MCC has funded everything from live performances and art installations to murals and field trips. All projects must benefit Marblehead residents.

MCC Chair, Jennifer Uhl, states, "Our eleven member council is excited about this upcoming application cycle. We hope to see this process result in many meaningful and inspirational projects in and around our beautiful town. We encourage residents to attend upcoming events supported by Council including the Global Music Discovery Series at Me & Thee on October 18th, 6th Annual Indigenous Peoples Day on October 14th and The Forgotten Poor on Sept 21st."

The MCC continues to place an emphasis on new, emerging, and established artists and programs in local venues as well as racially and culturally diverse programming.
